Upperville Colt & Horse Show Capital Campaign

Your gift will help us meet our $7.5 million goal and ensure the future of the oldest horse show in America.

Almost 400 individuals, foundations, and businesses have already helped us raise over $5 million and enabled a host of important improvements, from restoring the Show's iconic tree canopy and grandstand to upgrading the footing and modernizing the water and electrical systems.

Now we need YOU to contribute so we can continue improving the show grounds, build the Show's endowment, and preserve this historic equestrian event for future generations.

We are deeply grateful to those of you who have supported the Capital Campaign to date.

We ask that each participant sign their waiver digitally in advance using the HorseShowsOnline service. You will be asked to verify that your waiver has been signed at the office when you check in.

Use of Safety Protocols

The Upperville Colt & Horse Show will have both medical and veterinary personnel available throughout the show to protect the safety of the people and horses on the showgrounds. The show managers and others will support and work with the medical and veterinary personnel as set forth in the show's written Safety Protocols to minimize risk and to facilitate the best possible medical response in case of an injury or other medical emergency involving a rider or any other person on the showgrounds, or a veterinary emergency involving a horse.

The Safety Protocol's overarching objective is to reduce the negative impact of injuries by

- (1) decreasing the time from injury on the showgrounds to the provision of definitive care at an appropriate medical or veterinary facility and
- (2) optimizing the quality of care that is provided on site.

Medical and Veterinary Personnel:

The medical personnel will consist of four qualified medical personnel as defined by USEF regulations. Two will be stationed on the Grafton Farm (“Hunter”) and two on the Salem Farm (“Jumper”) showgrounds during each day of competition, as determined by the Safety Coordinator.

The veterinary personnel will consist of an on-site veterinarian and staffed equine ambulance during showing hours. After-hours emergency veterinary service numbers will be posted at the show offices and published in the Prize List.

About the Cover Artist

America's premier artist, Sharon Lynn Campbell, is best known for her beautiful, life-like oil paintings featuring horses, pets and their owners.

As a sought after artist, Campbell's work has graced the covers of the country's most renowned hunter/jumper prize lists and programs and appeared on the covers of many top equine publications.

Her ability to capture the personality of the people, pets and horses in great detail comes from a love of riding, training, teaching and showing, developed over a lifetime of being a horsewoman and animal lover at her family farm.

Campbell's exquisite artwork hangs in hundreds of private collections domestically and abroad.

Campbell's subjects range from Olympic horses to family portraits and pets. Campbell even painted some African wildlife for clients.
